

On the Horizon with VA Pension Benefits

Takacs McGinnis Elder Care Law invites you to be our guest for lunch.

Thursday, February 23, 2017, 12:00pm—1:00pm

Black-eyed Pea Restaurant, 164 E Main St, Hendersonville

Come join a small group of community friends and colleagues as VA accredited attorneys from Takacs McGinnis Elder Care Law discuss a government benefit important to the veterans and surviving spouses that you serve. Learn about the proposed VA regulations concerning non-service connected disability pensions, aid and attendance and death pensions.

Take this opportunity to educate yourself about the facts concerning VA pension benefits. Learn about the pending rule changes, and be ready to guide your clients and their families through the regulations now and in the future.

Please RSVP, seating is limited.

615-824-2571 or email bwoodard@tn-elderlaw.com

For two decades, Takacs McGinnis Elder Care Law (formerly known Elder Law Practice of Timothy L. Takacs) has been helping clients and their families respond to the legal, financial, and physical challenges presented by long life, illness and disability. Certified Elder Law Attorneys Timothy Takacs and Barbara McGinnis are VA accredited. They lead an interdisciplinary team of professionals who work together to maximize quality of life for elders and create welcome peace of mind for families.

201 Walton Ferry Road, Hendersonville, TN 37075
(615) 824-2571 www.tn-elderlaw.com